Neil Dunnet – The BT Global Challenge Round The World Yacht Race

Neil is a member of Lymington Town Sailing Club and was appointed Rear Commodore Cruising and elected to the club Executive Committee 20021-2024.

He was a crew member for the BT Global Challenge round the world yacht race 2000/2001 – a race.

created by Sir Chay Blyth which was held every four years between 1992 and 2004. It was billed as the toughest yacht race in the world, sailing against the winds and tides and experiencing extreme teamwork and intense sailing. Neil will be recounting his experiences which confirm the above!
