"Weekend Away"

Cricket St. Thomas Hotel, Somerset

Three Nights: Friday 12th October to Monday 15th October

Cricket St. Thomas, in Chard, Somerset, was frequently visited by Lord Nelson and Lady Hamilton but is perhaps better known as the scene of much of the famous TV comedy, To the Manor Born. This classic country house, now owned by Warner Leisure Hotels, is set in splendid parkland, with colourful gardens, lakes, and a unique woodland area. Not only does the hotel provide nightly West End-style live music or shows, there are numerous activities, sports and leisure facilities to enjoy during the day.

Our accommodation will include breakfast and a three-course dinner each evening, for which we will be allocated a reserved section in one of the restaurants. There will be live entertainment in the evenings (including The Dolly Parton Experience!) where again we will have reserved seating.

Check in time on the Friday is 3:00 pm, although you can enjoy the facilities on site from 12 noon onwards.

The all-in cost will be £225 per person, for a standard room and £255 per person for Signature rooms. Some single rooms may also be available at no extra cost.

Warner Holiday Protection is available on request, at £10 per person, to cover cancellation in the event of sickness etc. (details attached).

Applications, together with a deposit of £30 per person must be submitted by our April meeting (3rd April). The balance outstanding will be required by the 27th July.

If you are interested in attending, please complete the form on the next page.

Warner Holiday Protection

We know that life sometimes doesn't go smoothly and when you're looking forward to your holiday, you want the confidence that you've got everything covered. Our Warner Holiday Protection enables you to book your holiday with total peace of mind, leaving you free to relax and look forward to your holiday. (Please note our Warner Holiday Protection is per person).

The Warner Holiday Protection covers a cancellation in the event that you, or members of your party, who take the protection, are unable to travel up until the day of arrival due to:

Sickness - Redundancy - Jury Service - Adverse weather conditions

£10 per person for breaks of 6 nights or less

£13 per person for breaks of 7 nights or more

The details

If you, or a member of your group, wish to cancel your booking in respect of sickness, redundancy or jury service you must write to notify us. Cancellation is based from the date we receive your written confirmation.

You will also need to provide us with written evidence, eg. Doctor's certificate/letter, Employer's letter or Court Notification. We are not able to refund any monies paid or transfer payments to another holiday until we have received the relevant documents.

Being covered by our Warner Holiday Protection, and falling within the categories listed above, cancelled bookings are subject to the following:

Cancelling more than ten weeks prior to your holiday start date:

You will be able to transfer the value of your holiday to an alternative date*, or get a refund, less a £30 per person cancellation fee (£80 per person for Christmas and New Year bookings).

Cancelling less than ten weeks prior to your holiday start date:

You will be able to transfer the value of your holiday to an alternative date* less a cancellation fee of £30 per person (£80 per person for Christmas and New Year bookings).

If we receive your notice less than seven days before your holiday start date, the cancellation fee will be £80 per person (£125 per person for Christmas and New Year bookings). If cancelling on the morning of your holiday start date, where possible, please call the Group Sales Admin Team on 0330 100 9772 or email groups@warnerleisurehotels.co.uk.

If you haven't arrived by 8am the morning after your holiday start date and you haven't contacted us to confirm when you're going to arrive, we'll treat your holiday as cancelled. In this case you will not be entitled to any refund or transfer.

Adverse weather cover

We know the weather in the UK can be unpredictable so we've added adverse weather, which may prevent you from reaching your holiday destination and enjoying your holiday, to our Warner Holiday Protection. Adverse weather conditions means snow, floods and any other weather of such severity that the police and/or appropriate authorities warn, by means of public communication networks, that it is unsafe for individuals to travel via their planned or reasonable alternative route to the site. Please see our website for full details of where we refer to for this information.

Where we agree you are prevented from travelling to your holiday destination on your start date, due to adverse weather, any payments you've made for your booking may be transferred to an alternative holiday within the next six months. Any such substitute holiday start date must be booked with us within four weeks of the original holiday start date. The adverse weather condition cover is only applicable on day of travel and is subject to a cancellation fee of £80 per person (£125 per person for Christmas and New Year bookings).

Cancelling for any other reason

The Warner Protection Plan also covers cancellations for reasons other than sickness, redundancy, jury service and adverse weather conditions. In this case any transfer, or refund of monies paid, will be subject to the sliding scale of cancellation charges shown below.

Number of days in advance of holiday	Cancellation charge payable
70 days or more	Deposit paid and any supplement costs
69 - 43 days	40% of total holiday cost
42 - 29 days	60% of total holiday cost
28 - 8 days	90% of total holiday cost
7 days or less	100% of total holiday cost

Please note the Warner Holiday Protection cannot be added after your deposits have been paid - a 48 hour cooling off period is permitted if guests discover they have alternative cover.

Please note holidays not covered by our Warner Holiday Protection will not be refunded or transferred except where we have to cancel them. If there is not a booking already placed to transfer the money to, this will get placed into a hold account against the group organiser's name. The booking would need to be made within six months.
