

CHRISTMAS LUNCH, DECEMBER 2015

The lunch, which was attended by members and their guests, was held at East Close Hotel on Tuesday 1 December.

After a short Probus business item, we were entertained to a talk by Dale Johnson on “The ‘real’ Dad’s Army”. Dale is part of a re-enactment group which specialises in the home front during World War II.

He arrived in Home Guard Uniform and had parked his ‘official’ transport outside the Hotel, (an adapted Austin 7 van nicknamed ‘Autogophasta’).

After the talk we sat down to an enjoyable and convivial 3-course luncheon.

